8/10/25 Sunday's Message: AWESOME AUGUST

We are NOT accepting donations at this time. We have limited space.

Red Bird Mission is coming up soon.

Sept. 7th—12th. If you have an interest in going this year please contact Lisa Edmonson. She will be happy to answer any questions about the work that is done every year in Kentucky. If you can not travel with them this year and want to make a donation just make a check out to the church and designate the gift is for Red Bird Mission. THANK YOU.

August 4, 2025

Hello, Friends of Faith! What an exciting day of Worship we had on Sunday, July 27, 2025. It was a wonderful day to have many of our VBS kids to be a part of the Sunday Worship Service in sharing the dance/sing-along parts of their previous week with us. Friends, we had a fantastic week of VBS last week, celebrating the theme of “Live It Out,” sharing the gospel message of God’s love, mercy and grace. I want to thank all of you for your support of the VBS week. You did so with your prayers, your specifics of leading groups, providing meals, leading games, making crafts happen, singing and dancing, giving money, bringing children, decorating, taking decorations down, making music happen, taking down for a funeral event and setting back up.... I cannot thank each and every one of you enough for caring that children hear and experience the gospel message in hands on style. Thank you again!

Well, it is hard to believe but we are heading right into the month of August by the week’s end. That means that Worship during the month becomes “AWESOME AUGUST.” I am looking forward to the worshipful music we get to experience through the month of Sundays. I hope you will join me in inviting those you know that aren’t in a church, who haven’t been to worship in a while, or someone who would be new to the faith to join us. We will have with us this year: August 10 th – The Cahaba Brass Quintet; August 17th - The Edmonson’s; August 24th – SonRise; and August 31st – Chuck King and the Dixieland Jazz. I hope you will make it a priority to be a part of these wonderful Sunday’s during AWESOME AUGUST.

As we find ourselves looking ahead to August 2025, let’s make sure to have a great showing here at First Methodist Church on Thursday Night, July 31st for the Child Care Center Meet Your Teacher Night. Scottie Blair and others of us are providing a hot dog supper for staff, families, and children. The gathering will be to welcome and get to know children and parents of our Child Care Center. Our being present offers a great connection between families of the Child Care Center and Church families. You can be the connection to folks trying the church out as well. Hope to see some of you from 4:00 – 6:00 p.m., in the Fellowship Hall

Here is just a reminder of things coming up in August and going forward...

Hey, have you been practicing our Mission Statement here at First Methodist Church? Do you remember it’s components? Is it a part of you when you meet someone that asks you where you go to church, or you ask someone else if they have a church? It should be a part of each of us in our daily ministry for Jesus. Our Mission Statement says:

We believe God has called us...to be PASSIONATE ambassadors of God’s EXTRAVAGANT love by BOLDLY sharing the Gospel of Jesus Christ with EVERY-ONE. Let’s give our very best in serving Jesus Christ for the honor and glory of His Name!

In Service to Jesus,

Bro. John Verciglio

FLOODING VICTIMS HELP

To respond to the needs of those devastated by floods in Texas, you can offer a financial gift to recovery efforts as a Global Methodist. Here is an announcement from our Conference Elder, Rev. Alan Beasley:

We have all been devastated by the horrific tragedy in the Hill Country of Texas, especially Kerrville and Camp Mystic. If you or your church would like to donate to the disaster relief effort, here are the different ways to give. Directly to the Mid-Texas Annual Conference:
