First Methodist Church will host Trunk or Treat on Wednesday, October 29, 2025! The WEAC ladies' team is preparing Hot Dogs, Chips and Cookies that night for the WEAC Meal. You will need to turn in a WEAC reservation card as usual for that night so the WEAC team knows how many to expect from the congregation for supper! Trunk or Treat will officially take place from 6:00 to 8:00 P.M. in the grassy courtyard area as we have done the last few years. We need your help... Candy donations can be placed in the Candy Bins in the Narthex, in the West Entrance and in the Church Office. If you prefer, you can offer a monetary donation for the purchase of candy. We need to know who can and who will offer to set up a Trunk on Wednesday, October 29 th. Please contact the church office as soon as possible to let us know that you will be a hosting Trunk for this great night. *If you have questions, please contact either: Bro. Just Think About It...

Greetings Friends!

Greetings Friends! As always, I hope and pray that you are well this week...
This past week I came across a writing about the life of the “color-coated fellow” Joseph. What a story!! I re-read the account of his life, and along with the writing I came across, I was drawn to the writer’s questions to me as a reader of the story. Maybe they might help us ponder our own spiritual purpose and vision...
Alistar Begg writes, “What are we planning to do with the time God has given us? What are we living for?...As followers of Jesus, we must not live as though this world is all there is. Yet some of us can’t say with integrity, ‘There is more than just this life,’ because everything we are doing with our time, talents and money seems to be saying, ‘This is it! That’s why I’m working (or why I have worked) 60 hours a week. That’s why I don’t (or didn’t) come home or take a vacation. That’s why I (or why I do now) missed church again last Sunday. That’s why I don’t make time and take risks to serve and to share the gospel with my neighbors. Because this is it. Joseph had a purpose for his life and for those final, quieter years...settle one day in the promised land...he was always looking beyond Egypt...we too must live in such a way that we help our loved ones and our own hearts to ‘desire a better country, that is, a heavenly one.’”
I believe we can say that Joseph experienced the throttles of life. Up, down, sideways, crossways, highs, lows, freedom, captivity, plenty, in want...and yet, Joseph’s life knew that this world was not his home, his home was with God, this was only part of the pathway.
Is there an “Egypt” that we, our life, has settled into? Has this world captivated our allegiance to ‘this is all there is?’ Are we more enamored with the things of this world than we are with the promises of God? I am praying that for each of us, for our life connections, for our very spiritual lives...we are hopeful beyond the borders of Egypt.
Remember, we at First Methodist Church... We believe God has called us...to be PASSIONATE ambassadors of God’s EXTRAVAGANT love by BOLDLY sharing the Gospel of Jesus Christ with EVERYONE.
